MARIJA GIMBUTAS: ANTICIPATING THE FUTURE

ABOUT THE FILM

The documentary "Marija Gimbutas: The Sense of the Future" presents insights from one of the most renowned scholars of Lithuanian descent in the world, encouraging a rethinking of our identity and a return to the essence of Old European civilization.

This film is an in-depth exploration of the legacy of archaeologist and anthropologist Marija Alseikaitė-Gimbutas. It reveals her groundbreaking contribution to archaeomythology and highlights her intuitive and poetic approach to understanding ancient cultures. The film traces Gimbutas' journey—from her formative years in Lithuania to her active academic career—emphasizing her deep connection to folklore and her innovative studies of Old European cultures, goddesses, and myths.

The documentary features numerous reflections by Marija Gimbutas herself, as well as insights from scholars, writers, and intellectuals from various fields. These personal discoveries intertwine with academic perspectives, revealing Gimbutas' lasting influence on the study of ancient civilizations and her unique view of the interconnections between life, nature, and spirituality.
